

NCMA Puget Sound Chapter
General Membership Meeting & Training Event
Wednesday, October 12th 2016
5:30 PM – 7:30 PM; dinner served at 6 PM
Coast Hotel, 625 116th Avenue NE, Bellevue, WA 98004

"Federal Contracts: A Year in Review"

Please join us.... For a delicious catered dinner, non-alcoholic beverages, and a very informative presentation. The "Year in Review" presentation will address those significant statutory, regulatory, case law and other developments in Government Contracts in the past year. Designed for industry professionals, this talk will keep them abreast of those substantive changes that can sneak past you during a busy year.

Attendance certificate with 1.5 hours of training credit will be provided.

Speaker: James F. Nagle, Attorney at Law, Oles Morrison Rinker & Baker LLP

Location: The event will be held at the 625 116th Avenue NE, Bellevue, WA 98004.

Reservations: Advance Payment required and must be received by October 4, 2016.
Any reservation cancelled after October 5, 2016 is non-refundable.
Price $60.00 per person.
When making your reservation you must identify your meal choice:
Chicken Cordon Bleu, Pan Seared Blackened Cod, or Vegetarian Lasagna.
Meals come with a green salad, tiramisu cheesecake or fresh fruit, and coffee/tea.

RSVP: Register Soon! This event is limited to the first forty registrants.
Contact Michelle Warren by e-mail: dmwarren67@live.com or 850.218.7546
For name tags, please provide your name and company.

Payment: Credit Card payment made with reservation; preferred method of payment
PayPal ncmaps.org@gmail.com
Checks payable to NCMA Puget Sound Chapter mailed to Michelle Warren at 725 S Sullivan St, Seattle, WA 98108

Bio:
A nationally known expert in government contracts and construction law, James F. Nagle received his Bachelor's degree from Georgetown University School of Foreign Service; his J.D. from Rutgers; and his LL.M. and S.J.D. in government contracts from the National Law Center, George Washington University. He is one of only an estimated three people who have ever received this distinction.

Mr. Nagle has written six books on federal contracting, Nash, Cibinic and Nagle, Administration of Government Contracts, 4th ed, (George Washington University Press 2006); Whelan and Nagle, Cases and Materials on Federal Government Contracts, 3rd ed (Foundation Press 2007), the leading law school textbook on the subject; Federal Procurement Regulations: Policy, Practice and Procedures, (American Bar Association Press [ABA], 1987); How to Review a Federal Contract and Research Federal Contract Law, Second Edition, (ABA Press, 2000); Federal Construction Contracting, (Wiley Law Publications, 1992); The History of Government Contracting, Second Edition, (George Washington University Press, 1999). He has also co-authored and co-edited Washington Building Contracts and Construction Law, (Butterworth (now Aspen) Publishers, 1994). Besides being a contributing author to eight other books, his over 80 articles, on subjects as diverse as protests, changes, terminations, claims, and the Federal Acquisition Regulation, have appeared in such publications as the "Public Contract Law Journal," "Military Law Review," "NCMA Journal," and "Contract Management."