

ABOUT

ONE OF THE WEST COAST'S MOST EXPERIENCED AND TRUSTED LAW FIRMS

Established in 1893, Oles Morrison Rinker & Baker LLP is one of the West Coast's most experienced and trusted law firms with more than 30 attorneys practicing in offices located in Alaska, California and Washington. We have been providing legal counsel to public and private companies throughout the nation and internationally in all phases of construction and government contracting since the 1930s. Our attorneys play integral roles on a wide range of leading infrastructure projects, transportation systems and real estate developments. In addition to our primary practice areas of construction and government contracts, our clients look to us for our seasoned legal counsel on commercial litigation, business and real estate.

Our team includes a former Commissioner on the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, the president of the American College of Construction Lawyers, and several former contractors giving us unique insight and experience in the industry of public and private contracting. We offer senior level counsel at every stage of a complex project from inception and design to completion and commissioning. We strive for cost-effective and creative solutions to problems. Most importantly, we understand our clients' businesses and are committed to finding legal solutions that optimize their business goals.

We are passionate about what we do, have deep roots in the legal industry and take great pride in our work. We are committed to the industries in which we work and to the communities where we live and practice. We believe in being a true partner to our clients.
